

Station V Simon of Cyrene takes up the cross

(Tuesday)

We praise you O Christ and we bless you;
For by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Mark 15. 21.

We pray for all who bear the burdens of others.

We pray for those who are persecuted for bearing witness to Christ and his cross.

We thank God for those who have made our lives lighter and we pray that they in turn will know help in troubled times.

Lord Jesus, give us grace to follow your steps and walk with you.

Station VI

Veronica wipes the face of Jesus

(Tuesday)

We praise you O Christ and we bless you;
For by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Luke 7. 44-50.

We pray for those who put themselves at risk to care for others.

We pray for all who have no access to clean water or are unable to wash.

We pray for time to contemplate the face of Christ and we ask that we who were made in his image will grow more and more into his likeness.

Lord Jesus, give us grace to follow your steps and walk with you.

Station VII

Jesus falls a second time.

(Tuesday)

We praise you O Christ and we bless you;
For by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

John 8. 7-11.

We pray for those whose paths are filled with pitfalls.
We pray for those whose faith has failed.
We ask forgiveness for the habitual sins we barely notice any more.
We pray for spiritual determination and perseverance.

Lord Jesus, give us grace to follow your steps and walk with you.

Station VIII

Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem.

(Tuesday)

We praise you O Christ and we bless you;
For by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Luke 23. 27-31.

We pray for those who live in the war zones of the world.
We pray for those who continue to make Jerusalem a battleground.
We pray for those we know who have lost their children.
We pray for all our dreams which never came to begin.

Lord Jesus, give us grace to follow your steps and walk with you.
